"The strong institutional support for this Placement, and the cornerstone involvement of two globally diversified strategic investors, is a powerful endorsement of the quality of the portfolio, strategy and team we have at Basin.

This funding provides us with the firepower to significantly expand our exploration programs, including to continue unlocking the scale potential of our Sybella-Barkly rare earths and uranium position. We are delighted to welcome our new strategic investors to the register and to have received continued backing from our existing institutional shareholders.

We look forward to updating shareholders on exploration progress over the coming weeks."
